Artist Statement

(United States, b. 1965)

“When I look at the world through my camera lens, I experience a thrill that I might capture the complexity of the most uncomplicated moments. And it seems that in the 44+ years that I’ve taken photographs, I’ve grown less interested in man-made subject matter, and more enthralled with the quiet drama of the natural world.”

Originally from Philadelphia, PA, David Kuhn spent most of his childhood in the Midwest. His love for photography began as a young boy after watching his father take photos with the family’s SLR camera. Kuhn became enthralled with the process and results. Though not allowed to use the family camera at such a young age, it was after he received his own camera, a Vivitar 110, that he experienced the rush of artistic freedom and exploration.

After studying at several universities, David Kuhn received his Bachelor of Arts Degree in Studio Art from Graceland University, Lamoni, IA in 1988, where he focused on painting, drawing, photography and graphic design. His photographs can be found in private collections nationwide.
